

Instructions—Redesign: Reinstate Suspended Program

A program may be reinstated if it conforms to the reinstatement plan filed when the program was suspended. The requirement for a reinstatement plan was implemented in Fall 2007.

Describe how this reinstatement relates to the program suspension plan. If other changes have been made to the program since it was suspended, applicable redesign forms must be completed.

For more assistance in interpreting these criteria, please refer to Staff Contacts

GENERAL INFORMATION

Link to information on how to complete general information section on all applications.